

Vision 2020 Delegates Carolyn Cook (DC), Kate Campbell Stevenson (MD) and Visionary Delegate Carmen Delgado Votaw – November 26, 2013 at the Clearinghouse on Women’s Issues

On November 26, 2013 Vision 2020 Delegate Kate Campbell Stevenson (MD), spoke on Trailblazing Women Past and Present at the Clearinghouse on Women’s Issues held in Washington, DC. The Clearinghouse on Women’s Issues (CWI) is a Vision 2020 National Ally that presents expert speakers on current topics which impacts the lives of women, particularly public policies that affect women economically, educationally, medically and legally. They also cooperate and exchange information with other organizations that work to improve the status of women, nationally and internationally.

Campbell Stevenson shared how and why she uses the transformational power of the arts to promote women’s history and women’s leadership. Her one-woman show, Forging Frontiers: Women Leaders in STEM is Campbell Stevenson’s Vision 2020 Maryland State Initiative.
