LIVING HISTORY

Duet's 24th Annual Poinsettia Tea Celebrates History

BY MICHELLE GLICKSMAN

Duet's 24th Annual Poinsettia Tea offers more than just an elegant afternoon tea reception. This year, you'll also see history come alive. You can "meet" Eleanor Roosevelt, humanitarian and First Lady, through a living history portrayal by Kate Campbell Stevenson.

Held at the Hyatt Regency Scottsdale at Gainey Ranch, more than 500 attendees are expected to celebrate at this event, and enjoy Stevenson's first-person dramatic monologue and music as she brings Eleanor to life.

In addition to the Stevenson's performance, attendees will enjoy an afternoon tea complete with scrumptious scones, sandwiches, and sweets. During the event, Sharon and John Kearns will also be presented with the prestigious Dosi Carlson "KARED About" Award. The award recognizes compassionate caring in those "whose incredible example demonstrates Duet's mission coming alive."

Destry Jetton, host of channel 12's Arizona Midday, is the Mistress of Ceremonies.

The event benefits Duet, a non-profit that provides free-of-charge, compassionate help for homebound adults, caregivers, grandparents raising grandchildren, and congregational health programs.
